

Main display page

This shows you the channel number

This top £ display shows the cost of the Energy being used per hour by the device being monitored

The lower display shows the energy cost for the period of the survey

This is displaying a live Process parameter that is being used on the survey i.e. Bar for pressure or degrees C for temperature 4 bars appear if process measurement is not in use

Co2 –THIS button toggles the display

The MENU allows full access to the set up of the system and gives you the ability to simply tailor the system to suit your requirements

This displays the Area and device being surveyed. The pulsing display also tells you that the system is running.